Police Records Release Policy

What incident and accident reports can be released, to whom, and how to ask.

Accident reports are available to involved parties and their insurers five business days after the incident. Juvenile records are never released.